Whitehall, March 25.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Majesty, who received them very Graciously.

To His most Sacred Majesty King JAMES the Second,

The humble Address of the Bishop and the Clergy of the Diocess of Winton.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE your Majesties most Dutiful, most Obedient and Loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean, Arch-Deacons, and Prebendaries of the Cathedral Church of Winton, together with the Colledge near adjoyning, and the whole Clergy of the Dioceſs; Do with all humility testifie to God, and the whole World, our deep and unfeigned sorrow, for the Death of our late Dread Soveraign of Blessed and Glorious Memory; at the same time magnifying the Divine Providence both for your most Sacred Majesties former Preservations, and present happy Access to the Imperial Crown of these Realms, your Majesties most true, Lineal, and undoubted Right.

And having returned our sincere and most solemn Thanks to God Almighty (by whom Kings Reign) for this his signal Providence over, and unspeakable goodness to us; We beseech your Majesty to accept of these returns of Duty, Allegiance, and Gratitude which we render to your Majesty for Your most Gracious declaring to preserve the Government both in Church and State, as it is now by Law established: Nothing being more dear unto us, then the Preservation of your Majesties Sacred Person, the Peace, Happiness, and security of this Church and Kingdom; for which as we constantly pray, so we shall make it the Argument of our Discourses, to instruct the People committed to our charge, in the indispensable Duties which they owe to your Majesty and your Government; From which no Difficulties or Hazards shall be ever able to make us to swerve.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty JAMES the Second, by the Grace of God, King of England, Scotland, France, and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, &c.

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Prebendaries, and the rest of the Clergy of the Diocess of Carlile.

Dread Soveraign,

THough we cannot reflect on the manifold Blessings which this Nation enjoy'd under the happy Government of our late most Gracious Soveraign, of ever Blessed Memory, without the deepest sorrow of Heart for the loss of so Excellent a Prince; yet considering how gracious the Divine Providence has been to us all in preserving Him in the Government so long till he had perfectly subdu'd his Enemies both in Church and State, and made the way for His Rightful Successor, Your Royal Self, both peaceable and easie, we cannot but exceedingly admire and magnifie the Goodness and Mercy of God even in the method of His Judgments.

Your Majesties first Expressions to Your People are full of Princely Grace and Favour, and clearly shew to us and all the World what we may justly expect under your Reign: That the kind Influences of your Royal Clemency can never be obstructed by the disloyal and undutiful Practices of some; but that You will always follow the steps of your Royal Brother in maintaining the Government as by Law Established both in Church and State.

For this Gracious Declaration of Your Pious and Princely Resolution, we desire to return your Majesty our most humble and most unfeigned Thanks: beseeching your Majesty to believe, that as we have hitherto approv'd our selves Dutiful and Loyal Subjects in the late difficult Times; So for the future we always shall by our Example and by our Doctrine instil such good and Christian Principles into the minds of the People under our charge, that all of them may be Religiously and Conscientiously Obedient to your Sacred Majesty, Your Heirs and Lawful Successors, for ever.

God, who is the King of Kings, preserve Your Majesty from all danger; Grant You a long and happy Reign here, and a Crown of Eternal Glory hereafter.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty,

JAMES the Second,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, and Deputy Lieutenants in the County of Northumberland,

May it please your Sacred Majesty,

WE your Majesties most Loyal and Obedient Subjects, with unexpressible Sorrow lament the Death of our most gracious King Charles the Second of Blessed memory, your dearly and well beloved Brother, who governed us with great Clemency, and who under God redeemed us, and this Nation from the Slavery of our fellow Subjects the worst of men, who unjustly Ruled over us, and enjoyed the most of our Estates, But by His Majesties Restauration and good Government, we enjoyed since that time the Blessing of Peace, and have been defended in our Religion and Properties.

Sir, as the World is full of your glorious Actions, often repeated in your Royal Brothers Reign in the defence of this Nation, and now the accession of your Majesty to the Imperial Crown of your Ancestors, give us great consolation and satisfaction by your Declaration in Council; and we do protest before God, and assure your Majesty we will upon all occasions defend your Royal Person and Prerogative in its Rights, with our Lives and Estates, and your Heirs and Successors in the due course of descent against all persons whatsoever.

Beseeching Almighty God to grant your Majesty a long and happy Reign over us.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Council of Your City of Glasgow in Scotland, for themselves, and in name of the Inhabitants.

AS we Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, could not but in a very special manner, have a deep sense of, and be much afflicted for the inexpressible loss of our late Gracious Monarch, by whose care and protection we were so well defended from the dangers that did constantly threaten us from disorderly Neighbours, for which loss each of your Majesties Subjects is truly grieved; So this grateful and solemn Sorrow does not at all hinder us from blessing Almighty God, and having our Hearts fill'd with sincere Joy, for Your Sacred Majesties Succession to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors, by whom we and our Predecessors have been so long Protected, and from whose extraordinary Experience as well as Wisdom and Courage; We have just reason to expect that this Kingdom will be again reduced to Quiet and Happiness; And the Trade by which this place is only supported, will be secur'd and encouraged by that extraordinary Skill which your Sacred Majesty has in affairs of that nature; In return of all which, we shall endeavor with Hearts far more Loyal than any Professions we can make, not only to concur our selves in our own stations in your Majesties Service, but be very exemplary to others, in spight of all dangers and opposition, though we have very good reason to hope that none of those will threaten your Majesties peaceable Reign which that it may be as happy as your Majesties great Virtue deserves, and as our sincere Loyalty should inspire us to wish, shall be the constant and ardent Prayers of

May it please Your Sacred Majesty,

Your Majesties most humble, most Faithful, and most Dutiful Subjects.

The Humble Address of the Merchants, Seamen, and other Inhabitants within the Town and Port of Whitehaven, in the County of Cumberland.

MAy it please your most Excellent Majesty, to allow us in the throng of your Loyal Addressors to Condole with your Majesty the Death of that most Admirable Prince your Brother, King Charles the Second, of Ever Blessed Memory, the sense of which great loss, could not have been made up to us, by any less a Blessing than that of your Majesties happy Succession.

We cannot entertain any manner of fears, (notwithstanding the bold surmizes of yours and the Kingdoms Enemies) after the certain account we had of your Majesties Gracious Declaration in Council, to support the present Established Government both in Church and State; And as a due Testimony of our Thankfulness for so unspeakable a Favour, we do not only engage to comply most readily with your Majesties Proclamation in the payment of the Customes, but also (as in Duty bound) do make you a faithful Tender of our Lives and Fortunes to be readily employed in the Defence of your Majesty, your Heirs and Lawful Successors, against all Factious and Disloyal Persons whatsoever.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Baillives, and Burgesses of Barwick upon Tweed.

WE your Majesties most humble and Obedient Subjects, do Condole your Majesties loss of so dear and beloved a Brother; and ours, of so Gracious and Merciful a Prince, our late most Dread Soveraign of happy and blessed memory: And we do most heartily congratulate your Majesties Auspicious and peaceable Ascent to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors, to which your Majesty is the sole, natural, rightful, and undoubted Heir and Successor.

And as we have with Joy and Acclamations Proclaimed your great and Royal Name; so do we think and declare our selves infinitely happy in your Royal Protection, and late Gracious Declaration for the support and Defence of this Government as now by Law established.

And not our Charter only, but our Lives and Fortunes, do we chearfully lay at your Majesties Royal Feet, with our most earnest Prayers for your Majesties long Life and Happy Reign over us, to which we have with full consent set the Common Seal of our Town the Twenty Seventh day of February, in the First Year of your Imperial Majesties Reign, Anno Dom. 1684.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty, James the Second, &c.

The Humble Address of the Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and the rest of the Gentry and others of the Inhabitants of the County of Anglesey.

IT is our Comfort under our Affliction for so great a loss as that of our late Soveraign, to have access to your Majesty, and so offer our Tears before you, who are the Rightful Heir, not only of His Crown and Dignity, but likewise of that more absolute Power which He had over the Hearts and Affections of His People. And we Humbly crave leave to Congratulate your Majesties undisturbed and happy Succession to, and Establishment in all your Kingdoms; being sensible that our own Happiness cannot but attend that of your Majesty, who was pleased to give us so Gracious and early assurance of your Resolution to maintain the present Government by Law Established both in Church and State, which undoubtedly renders us the happiest Subjects in the World.

We do most Humbly tender to your Majesties Service our Lives and Fortunes, and do most heartily pray for your long and happy Reign over us.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The Humble Address of the Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and the rest of the Gentry of the County of Carnarvon.

Dread SIR,

IT was with the deepest Grief, that we received the Astonishing News of the Death of our late Soveraign King Charles the Second of Blessed Memory, and nothing could have dryed our Tears, and revived our Bleeding Hearts, but your Majesties Happy and Peaceable Succession to the Imperial Crown of this Realm, your Legal and undoubted Right, which may the King of Kings guard and strengthen upon your Sacred Head, and grant you long to Enjoy in Peace, Plenty and Honour.

And though we are part of your Majesties Dominions far Remote from the benign influence of your Royal Presence, yet we have already shared in the happy Effects which your late Declaration wrought in the Hearts of your Subjects, and as your Majesty is Graciously resolv'd to imitate the Royal Pattern of the late King your Brother, in Protecting us and maintaining the Government as now Established in Church and State, so will we Chearfully (as we ought) follow the Steps of our Fathers, and never err from an unalterable Loyalty to our King, in whose Defence we will hazard our Lives and Fortunes, Praying that Almighty God would Blast and Defeat all your Majesties Enemies, that shall dare to form any Evil Design against your Sacred Person, or Government.

To the High and Mighty Monarch King JAMES the Second,

The humble Address of your Majesties Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen of your Majesties County of Merioneth.

Most Dread Soveraign,

THere is nothing under Heaven could repair so great a Loss as that of your Royal Brother, but your Sacred Majesties succeeding Him in His Imperial Crowns and Dominions; This indeed justly compensates for our Sorrow, and renders our Grief much more tollerable and easie.

We were always your Majesties perfect Votaries, and therefore as such, we humbly take leave to offer our heartiest Prayers to Him that inhabits Eternity, for Your long and uninterrupted Prosperity, together with our humblest Protestations and Thanks to your Royal Person for your Gracious Declaration, such indeed we always expected from your Majesty, and though others might be pleased to exclude their Happiness by contrary thoughts; yet were we still of most firm belief, That these Expressions would be one of the first products of your Succession, and that the Church of England as by Law established, was dearer to You than to those that made such Seditious Clamours for its Preservation.

And now its having so good and great a Defender, we most humbly leave it and our selves in your Sacred hand in which may the Scepter of your Kingdoms flourish till your Enemies are subdued unto You, and till the Kings of the Earth both Envy and fear your Power, of which may your Majesty be the greateſt, are the moſt deſirable Wiſhes of Your very Loya and Dutiful Subjects the Subſcribers.

Towards the effecting of which we humbly beſeech your Majeſty to be aſſured that our Perſons and Fortunes ſhall moſt cheerfully be expoſed.

Vienna, March 18. The Turks we hear are preparing another great Convoy for Newheuſel; and ſeveral Troops are Marching to joyn Colonel Heuſler that he may be in a condition to oppoſe them. Of the laſt action he was engaged in with the Enemy we have now theſe particulars; Colonel Heuſler having had information by a perſon who came out of Newheuſel, that the Turks were reſolved to relieve that place whatever it coſt them; that for this purpoſe they had drawn together 8000 men between Novigrad and Vaccia; and that they were by a Signal of a certain number of Guns to give notice of their march to the Gariſon of Newheuſel, who were thereupon to ſend out 200 Horſe to meet the ſaid Convoy, and to conduct it, by the beſt and moſt convenient way to the Town; He was very watchful to prevent the Enemies deſign; and having heard the Signal, ſent a Detachement to meet the party that came out of the Town, which ſucceeded as he deſired; for they defeated the Turks and took 50 of them Priſoners, by whom they underſtood the way the Convoy was to take; whereupon Colonel Heuſler, having with him about 2000 men marched towards the River Ipol, and poſted himſelf there. The Enemy advancing, he firſt attacked their Van-guard with three Field Pieces, and put them into diſorder, and then charged them with that Succeſs, that after a ſhort Diſpute he put them to flight, leaving 500 ſlain upon the place, but Colonel Heuſler knowing their main Body was not far off did not think fit to purſue them. The Envoy from the Prince of Tranſilvania has not yet been admitted to Audience. The Count de Staremberg is to Command the Imperial Troops in Croatia. And Count Leſlie will have the Command Count Staremberg had the laſt Campagn in the Imperial Army under the Duke of Lorrain.
